Default Alert:

If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur.

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance on the loan.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF):

STRF is a state requirement that a student who pays his or her tuition is required to pay a state imposed assessment for the student tuition recovery fund. All students that are residents of California that pay their tuition by cash, personal loans must participate in the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF). The Non-Refundable STRF charge for your program will be based on the charge of $0.00 per $1000.00 in tuition charges to the next $1000.00. This was established to protect any student who attends a private postsecondary institution from losing money if you prepaid tuition and suffered a financial loss as a result of the school closing. You do not qualify by failing to live up to the school’s enrollment agreement or refusing to pay a court judgment.

Student Rights and Responsibilities with respect to the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF):

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans.
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer, such as an employer, government program, or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

“The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private postsecondary and Vocational Education.”

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school’s failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for, which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school’s failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act of this Division within 30 days before the school closed or the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure.
5. Inabilities after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement you must file a STRF application within one year of receiving notice form BPPE that the school has closed. If you do not receive notice from BPPE, you have four years from the date of closure to file STRF applications. If a judgment is obtained, you must file a STRF application within two years of the final judgment. It is important that you keep copies of the enrollment agreement, receipts or any other information that documents the monies paid to the school.
